

Dan Mainous
Vice President
Truist

Dan Mainous is a Vice President for Truist Financial Corporation and a Relationship Manager on the Bank's National Real Estate Team. In this role, Dan acts as a trusted financial partner to large, private developers and investors to deliver complex banking and capital markets solutions.

Following his completion of Truist's Leadership Development Program, Dan joined the bank's CRE organization in 2017. Dan's work has enabled Truist to be a preferred provider of financial services to the CRE industry and a key partner to both new and long-term client relationships. His active involvement in the community and industry organizations has allowed him to develop a reputation as an expert in CRE financing and Carolinas real estate. With more than six years of banking experience, he has grown his career with Truist and within the Bank's CRE team; his success has been recognized with multiple promotions within the organization.

Passionate about building a better community and improving best-practices and knowledge sharing in the CRE industry, Dan serves as Co-Chair of the Carolinas' Young Leaders Regional Council and Vice Chair of the Membership Committee of the Urban Land Institute. He currently serves in various capacities with NAIOP and Sustain Charlotte. Previously, he served as a board member for the United Way of Central Carolina's Young Leader's Board and Co-Chair Truist's Charlotte United Way corporate campaign.
