

Thomas "Skip" Hill
Senior Vice President
Highwoods Properties

Skip is responsible for overseeing Highwoods Raleigh Division operations, including all leasing, property management, acquisition/ disposition and development activities for its 6.5 million square foot office portfolio. Skip joined Highwoods in 2002 and originally served as Highwoods' Corporate Vice President of Leasing where he was responsible for the company's leasing activities nationally.

Skip currently serves on the Board of the Downtown Raleigh Alliance, Marbles Kids Museum, as well as the Board of Advisors for the North Carolina Children's Hospital.

Skip enjoys being involved in the community, having served as Chairman of several community Boards, including the Downtown Raleigh Alliance, the Cary Chamber of Commerce, the Greater Raleigh Convention and Visitors Bureau, Triangle NAIOP, Triad NAIOP and the North Carolina Chapter of CCIM. He is an active member of the Greater Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, having served as a past board member and economic development chair.

Skip earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is a Certified Commercial Investment Member (CCIM) designee.